GENERAL FAQs:

1. Not Attending the Commencement Ceremony on May 28th?

If you do not want to participate in the House Commencement Ceremony on May 28, call the House Office at 5-2283 right away. If you are unsure due to athletic competitions, also call us. If you prefer to have your diploma mailed to you, be sure to fill out the Diploma Mailing Request Form (http://www.registrar.fas.harvard.edu/sites/default/files/media/DiplomaMailingRequestForm.pdf): you will be charged for this diploma mailing. Please do let us know that you asked for it to be mailed.

2. Lowell House Commencement Program:

All diploma ceremony participants are listed in the Lowell House program, even if you cannot attend. As space permits, we list as many College prizes and awards as possible. Because we rely on you for information about your awards, please report any prizes and awards you have won during all your years at Harvard. List these on the attached Lowell Senior Survey and return it to the House. (Keep in mind we cannot list all prizes and will exercise discretion in this matter.)

3. Term Bills:

If you have any outstanding bills, you must settle them no later than May 18th, at the Term Bill Office, 9th Floor, Smith Campus Center (5-2739). Make sure all University bills are paid on time or you will not receive your diploma at Commencement; all you will get is a nice, big red envelope.

4. Commencement Tickets for Morning Yard Exercise, i.e. the big shebang:

There are only 4 tickets for the Morning Yard exercises, per student. This is university policy. Attempting to sell Morning Exercises tickets is an actionable offense so remember, do not sell them or advertise to do so! That's asking for trouble. (Note: there are no tickets needed for the afternoon Lowell House diploma ceremony)

5. Where do I get graduation tickets?

Commencement Day Yard Exercises, afternoon speaker, Class Day tickets, can all be picked up by Seniors and Walkers in person at 124 Mount Auburn Street, 6th floor “Senior Desk” starting c. May 10th, after completing your online College Senior Survey. NB - This College survey is crucial: you can’t pick up any tickets without completing it! You will be notified by the College Dean’s Office about this survey towards the end of April, and there will be a link to it in your notification. Please be on the lookout for this email on your @college account. It is very important.

6. What about Lowell Lunch tickets on graduation day?

Please see next page for information on that.

7. Dining Services:

The Lowell House dining hall will close after dinner on Saturday, May 16th. After that, Currier and Leverett, and Quincy Houses will be open to Seniors and Walkers from May 17th – 23rd, lunch and dinner only. Be sure to have your ID in hand! (NB: there are a few all campus events during this time which will cause all Dhalls to be closed for a meal. Info on those events will come via your Senior Class Committee rep)

   Note: Your senior class committee representative is Amira Abedallah.

9. The Masters’ Reception for Lowell House seniors and their families will be held on Wednesday, May 27th from 5 to 7 pm in the Masters’ Residence. Please plan on attending with your families. Light appetizers and drinks.

10. Caps and Gowns:

    You are required to wear traditional academic caps and gowns for Commencement exercises in Harvard Yard and in Lowell House. They can be picked up (no reservations necessary) at the Coop between May 21st - May 27th.

11. Commencement Rehearsals & Security

    There are no actual rehearsals for the big day; Commencement Aides and staff will be around to guide you every step of the way. Regarding Security: you must have your Harvard ID in hand at the Senior Breakfast--we will be giving each of you a special security lanyard into which you will insert your ID as you line up to march to the Yard. This is how you gain access to the Yard without being searched. So don’t forget your ID! Also please be sure NOT to bring extra bags or purses with you to morning exercises.

Lowell House ticket information:

Lunch tickets: Lowell House lunch is intended to be free for each senior and two guests. The luncheon tickets used to be distributed by us but this year they will be available at the SENIOR DESK (124 Mount Auburn) with all your regular tickets. Once you have done your college survey you may go to Senior Desk and get all your tickets.

Extra lunch tickets: You will need to purchase extra lunch tickets if you are bringing more than two guests. You can buy the extras from the Senior Desk. Note: HUDS will sell lunch tickets the day of commencement--it’s just a long line. Better to do it ahead of time.

Kosher lunches: If you need a kosher lunch you may order it directly via Luke Parker before May 15th. His email is: luke_parker@harvard.edu. Extra Kosher lunches will not be readily available on Commencement Day so please do be sure to order in advance if you wish to have a Kosher meal.

Diploma Ceremony: There aren’t any tickets needed for our diploma ceremony at 1 pm. You are welcome to bring as many friends and relatives as you like. Grab a spot in the grass or a chair, and watch the fun.

Diploma Ceremony, May 28th, 1 pm, Lowell Courtyard:

Seniors will line up alphabetically, beginning at A-Entry, trailing down the stairs towards the Masters’ Residence. Commencement Aides will be standing at A-Entry to be sure that you are in the proper order, and to remind you to move your tassel to the left so that it will not be in the way for photographs. The Masters and Dean will be standing in front of the bust of President Abbott Lawrence Lowell. You should wait until you hear Diana and Dorothy announce your name. Walk forward and receive congratulations from them and from Caitlin as your diploma is presented to you. Members of the Senior Common Room will be standing in a line immediately following the presentation to receive you. Please follow the receiving line all the way to the end, in front of E Entryway.

Please be courteous and refrain from celebrating with friends or departing the ceremony until all diplomas are awarded.

Ceremony Rain Plan:

Should it rain, we will make an announcement at Senior Lunch and we will split the diploma ceremony into two segments so as to accommodate families under our tent in the small courtyard. We will line you up alphabetically (first ceremony will be A – M; second, N – Z) under the R-Entry archway and into the hall between the dining room and JCR. You will be directed by the ushers to proceed (when the time comes) to the tent where the diplomas will be presented. You should encourage your family to come to the tent to watch you receive your diploma and then to join you in the dining hall immediately after you receive it, as the tent will not be large enough to accommodate everyone’s family for the both ceremonies.

Drippy, Runny, Red Diploma Folders: Please be advised that the dye in the red folders in which the diplomas are enclosed will run if any liquid is spilled on the envelope. The actual diploma will be enclosed in protective plastic. DO NOT throw this protective plastic away! If the diploma does become stained for whatever reason, or if your name or concentration is misspelled, you must return the diploma to the Registrar’s Office, Room 201, 20 Garden Street, by Friday, May 29th at noon. It will be replaced at no charge. Any further delay will cost c. $150 for a new copy of the diploma.

Photos: Arrangements have been made for Commencement Photos, Inc. to photograph each student as the diplomas are presented. Photos will be available for purchase, and information about them will be sent to your parents’ address and to your email address soon. The information will be available through a link on our website, too. You are under no obligation to buy any photos but they will be available for one year after Commencement. If your family plans to do its own photography, please ask them not to interfere with the professional photographers. Many thanks!

Senior Move Out: Sorry, but seniors are expected to move out the day after Commencement, May 29th. Please make sure you allow enough time to pack. There is no summer storage for graduates. ☺
